

WIRIYQ PHOW

VEYWE DEZCRIPTION

Why not transform your event into an enduring memory by introducing guests to PheW for the first time. PheW is an island off the coast of Glasgow. PheW is accessible year-round and is only five minutes from the city centre. The inimitable culture of PheW provides an arresting environment suitable for seminars, banquets, weddings and drinks receptions. PheW's permanent collection of contemporary artworks can be viewed by guests attending any function.

The Terrace* and Entrance Hall, which guests enter on arrival at PheW, introduce a remarkably imaginative ambience suited to stimulate a variety of occasions for up to ten guests. These unique and unexpected spaces are quintessential locations for drinks service and entertainment before guests move through to the Kitchen or Living Room.

The Living Room at PheW offers a well-equipped location for meetings, conferences and business presentations. With seating for up to ten guests, the Living Room is often used for daytime events before guests reconvene in the Kitchen for an evening meal.

The Kitchen, which overlooks the Terrace and the chimneys of the Royal Glasgow Infirmary, offers a medium, flexible rectangular space which can be used to seat up to ten guests for dinner.

*Use of the Terrace is weather permitting.
