

PHEW PROPOSALS

In the interest of leaving windows open PheW has a rolling call for proposals. PheW is an island off the coast of Glasgow. PheW is accessible year-round and is only five minutes from the city centre.

The inimitable culture of PheW is primarily directed through the dreams of permanent resident and sole studio holder Oliver Braid. Occasional exceptions may be made to this rule upon reception of particularly strong or compelling proposals. These proposals may be for one-off events or for longer running exhibitions and projects.

Applying to PheW with your proposal is extremely simple. Please complete the information below, attach up to six pieces of documentation of previous work and pay the application fee of 60 GBP.

Compile your information and documentation into a PDF file and send to open@phew.gives
